

Licence degree

The Licence degree is a three-year course. To pass the Licence, 180 ECTS Credits (30 Credits per semester) must be capitalized. Students take a group of subjects called Law Major (fundamental legal subjects), and a group of subjects called Law Minor. Political sciences students take a Political sciences Unit, and a Law Unit. Third-year students may specialize in private law or public law.

Every semester, the Major is worth 22 Credits, and the Minor 8 Credits.

Diplomes

Double diplôme de droits français et anglais L-M1/LLB

Double Licence Droit - Philosophie

Licence Droit

Licence Droit - Prépa IEP

Licence professionnelle chargé de compte souscripteur en assurance

Licence Professionnelle des métiers du notariat à distance

Licence Professionnelle des métiers du notariat en présentiel

Licence Professionnelle Métiers de l'Immobilier : Gestion et Administration de biens (à distance)

Licence professionnelle métiers de l'immobilier : gestion et administration de biens (en alternance)

Licence professionnelle métiers de l'immobilier : gestion et développement de patrimoine immobilier (en alternance)

Licence Science Politique - Droit

Languages

The English course, which comprises lectures and tutorials, is compulsory. Students may also study a second foreign language (legal German, Italian, or Spanish) as part of a University Diploma, and obtain extra credits which can be used as a bonus for their Licence degree.

Workshops

Some Tutorials will be organized in the form of Workshops (for smaller groups of students)

Courses

LL.M International and European Law

LL.M Pallas in European Business Law

SELF (Study in English, Lyon, France)

Last updated: February 2, 2012