

Partnerships

The student and teacher exchange partnerships involve either universities belonging to the European Erasmus system within the lato sensu borders of Europe, or universities located in the rest of the world. All these agreements are based upon the following principle: the recognition, in the students' countries of origin, of the courses followed at the host university.

Partnerships in Europe within ERASMUS

United Kingdom - Ireland

North Europe

Eastern Europe, Russia, Ukraine

Germany, Austria, Switzerland

South Europe (Italy, Greece, Cyprus, ...)

Partnerships with non ERASMUS countries

North America

Latin America

Asia

Oceania

Africa, Middle East

California Universities

Courses :

LL.M International and European Law

LL.M Pallas in European Business Law

SELF (Study in English, Lyon, France)

Last updated: November 4, 2015